

CV Dagmar Roth – Behrendt

Dagmar Roth – Behrendt was born on 21 February 1953 in Frankfurt-am-Main and grew up in Karben (Hessen) and in Torredojimeno (Andalusia, Spain). She studied law in Marburg until 1977; after passing the first state law examination she trained as a law clerk in Hessen and Berlin.

After the second state law examination in 1979, she started working as a lawyer in the field of administrative law. In 1982 she worked as a desk officer at the Berlin House of Representatives in charge of the committee of inquiry on administrative reform in the Berlin Region, before moving to work in the chancellery of the Governing Mayor of Berlin. From 1985 till 1989 she was a member of Spandau District Assembly (Berlin).

In 1989 Mrs. Roth – Behrendt was elected to the European Parliament where the main focus of her work was in the Committee on the Environment, Public Health and Food Safety (ENVI) and the Committee on Legal Affairs (JURI). In the ENVI Committee she was involved in creating the structures of the European Medicines Agency and the European Food Safety Authority when these two bodies were founded. At the height of the BSE crisis in 1997 she was chair of the temporary Committee to follow up the recommendations on BSE.

From July 2004 until early 2007 and from July 2009 until early 2012 she was a Vice President of the European Parliament with particular responsibility for the Parliament's personnel matters.

From early 2007 until the end of her parliamentary term in 2009 she was the Chair of the Working Party on Reform of the European Parliament. She was responsible for preparing proposals on improving the working methods of the European Parliament and its bodies.

During her second term as Vice President (from July 2009 until January 2012) she was the head of the European Parliament Bureau working group on the Implementing Measures for the Members' and Assistants' Statutes.

Mrs. Roth – Behrendt also represented the European Parliament in teams involved in inter-institutional negotiations with the Council of the European Union and the European Commission such as those in 2007 on the Joint Declaration by the European Parliament, the Council of the European Union and the European Commission on practical arrangements for the co-decision procedure or the 2010 negotiations with the European Commission on a new framework agreement on cooperation between the European Parliament and the Council of the European Union.

After being the Member of the European parliament for 5 parliamentary terms she did not stand as a candidate for the elections to the European Parliament in May 2014 and therefore left the European Parliament in July 2014.

Until 2014 Mrs. Roth – Behrendt was a member of the advisory panel of BSR Berlin. She is still a member of the Board of Buerger Europas, a member of the Board of the non-profit public company Krankenhaus Havelhohe in Berlin, a member of the Assembly of the Europaeische Akademie Berlin and a member of the Ad hoc Ethical Committee (Commission Decision 13/07/2016 – PV(2016)2177).

In November 2014 Mrs. Roth – Behrendt was appointed as a special advisor to the Commissioner Vytenis Andriukaitis who is responsible for health and food safety and is still continuing her role till present day.
